

Croeso i Gymru ym Mharis Disneyland

Yes, Wales comes to Disneyland® Paris and you're invited. Celebrate St David's Day during this two day Welsh Festival whilst enjoying the thrills of the best Theme Parks in Europe.

8th – 11th March 2012

There is so much to do and see over this fun weekend ringing with the sound of music and colourful red white and green themed events.

Mickey & Minnie Exclusive

During the Welsh festival, Disneyland® Paris is the only place in the world where these famous characters appear in traditional Welsh costume.

Fantastic Firework Finale

Staged over Sleeping Beauty Castle will be a St David's Fireworks display lighting up the sky in explosions of bright red, white and green.

Musical concerts, choirs and performances

Music is ever close to the heart of the Welsh and this celebration will be filled with the voices of male voice choirs, schools Welsh Pop and Rock concerts, performances from Eisteddfod competition winners and up and coming Welsh bands.

Sword in the Stone

Join in Merlin's challenge to pull the sword from the stone in a quest to find a new leader.

Face Painting

A chance for the little ones (or bigger ones) to join in the spirit of the event with artistic facial designs from daffodils to dragons.
